Historian's Report: None

Marketing: Wayne reported that newsletters have been sent to area advertisement sources e.g. Arrowhead Lines, Tribune. Jeanne has read it in Arrowhead Lines and it was good. It was decided to have a booth on July 6 at Farmer's Market to advertise and sell tickets. Jeanne will do early time, Barb later morning. Posters are made and will be distributed to local businesses. Barb, Pam, Jeanne and Kim will distribute. It was decided to put info in emails and on Facebook and to SHARE. Ron stated that 2 people from Wausau have already called regarding tickets! Barb stated that as in past $15 from each ticket sale will be distributed between chosen charities.

Sponsored Events:

Jitterbug Lessons: Barb reported they are going well but more lesson time is needed.

Nursing Home Shows have been scheduled for week of July 16-20.

The Memory Care Show has been invited to join the Hilltop show.

Rome' n' Fest Aug 10-11: Funds to be distributed between:

Community Garden Sprinkler Donation, Nekoosa Ambulance, Town of Rome Station, Friends of Library, and Food Pantry.

ARDC will be discussed next year.

Table Sponsors: Pam reports the letter has been written and will be sent to previous sponsors and area businesses including Sand Valley. All sponsor monies will go to Friends of Library other proceeds to be divided between other charities.

Ticket seller: Mary Johnson. Barb will ask people who have sold in past to help.

Liquor License: License will be in conjunction with CWNF Constable and donation request from Town Board: Wayne will do.

Mystery Dinner: None this year

Veteran's Day Show. Sun Nov 11: Still waiting for confirmation on Sunday date. So far it is a go for Sun.

Script writing for 2019: Will start after this year's show

Web Page Development: Needs updating

Thrivent Grant writing: Penny M received $250. Patti B received $250. Discussion centered on need of new storage area and perhaps we could use monies towards that unless other opportunities open up.
